Following a request from the Polish grower association, a change in the IBA statutes is submitted to the general assembly. Stefanie Sharma presents the idea behind this change: in 2023, one of the independent members had been elected as vice-president of the IBA. As the IBA wants to make sure to be governed by growers only, the change would be as follows:

Under Article Article 11: The Board of Directors, 7. Executive (describing the roles of the IBA President, vice-president, secretary and treasurer), the following sentence will be added:

“Only members of category A (National or Multinational Producer Organizations) can be elected for these positions.”

4th deliberation: No questions arising, the change of the IBA statutes is submitted to the vote of the assembly and adopted unanimously.

As a result of this change, Przemyslaw Wijaszka cannot stay vice-president. In preparation of the meeting, he had informed the IBA Board of his intention to resign on 11th June 2024. Jakub Osrodek (Poland) informs the assembly that he wants to stand for elections for the role of vice-president. No other candidate stands for this position.

5th deliberation: The general assembly votes unanimously for Jakub Osrodek as vice-president of the IBA.
